Mrs. Honeyman was hostess at a very pleasant dinner party Monday evening of last week at seven o'clock. Lunch was spread for eleven.

The basket ball dance, held last Thursday, netted the boys a fair "nest egg" upon which to start the season. Over thirty-five couples attended.

Geo. E. Hadick had the misfortune to have three fingers of his left hand caught between timbers and falling rock last week, crushing them and compelling him to lay off.

Dr. Hoeffelfinger made a flying trip to Lordsburg Tuesday to meet his wife whom he expected from Los Angeles, but returned a disappointed man, as his wife missed connections.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cummings, Mrs. Caldwell and E. F. Randall drove to Clifton Sunday and attended the Elks' Memorial Service. Mr. Cummings making an address and Mrs. Cummings rendering a piano solo.

Another promising son arrived in Morenci, Wednesday, Frank Howard, the popular barber being the proud father. Frank will not have to worry where to look for a barber to assist him more than twenty years more.

It took just fifteen minutes Monday evening for the Club management to get rid of two hundred and some odd tickets for the lecture course entertainment which present The Whitney Bros. Quartette Saturday Dec. 9.

The Mining Society met Tuesday evening in the School Auditorium and listened to one of the most interesting and instructive talks of the season. Mr. Peter B. Scotland, superintendent of the Arizona Copper Co., mines at Metcalf spoke on "Ore Deposits of Metcalf District."

On Tuesday, J. H. Miller "put one over on the boys." For some time there had been a rumor to the effect that on Thanksgiving day he was going to marry Miss Clare Spriggs, but instead of pulling it off on scheduled time Tuesday evening, Nov. 28, they quietly took themselves to the home of B. K. Williams and were married. Wednesday, when it was learned, the friends of the bride and groom got a band and proceeded to give the young couple a rip-roaring good old fashioned send-off. "Johnnie" was there with the treat, giving the fellows a fine Dutch lunch.

The Masquerade Dance given last Thursday by the W. O. W., proved a howling success. Over twenty-five couples attending. Their costumes were exceptionally fine and their antics kept the crowd in the gallery in an uproar. Mrs. Wm. O'Brien and "Jack" Scott for the ladies were exceptionally clever, being dressed as twins. Of the men "Johnnie" Saunders had them all up a tree. Dressed as a girl, he had the men guessing, and only by diplomatic handling of the cards was he able to keep the men from clashing to see who would have the honor of the announced dance. When the unmasking came at eleven, there were some surprised people.

Tuesday evening the Ladies Aid Society held a very profitable bazaar which was largely attended. There were various booths artistically decorated, at which the women in a very charming and persuasive manner convinced the people that they really desired their wares. After everything had been sold, Rev. Allan Krichbaum made the presentation speech. Miss Florence Robison, got the prize for the most original, Mrs. Ingram for the most fancy, and Mrs. B. A. Edgington for the best kitchen aprons. A very enjoyable musical program was rendered by Sandon's Harp Orchestra.

Monday evening, last week, the local basket ball team met and elected officers as well as talked over the plans for the winter's work. McElrain was elected coach and captain, and Shontz manager. Arrangements are being made to have Clifton play here within the next two weeks. Clifton's team this year promises to be one of the fastest ever gotten together "down in the hollow" as the board of supervisors have shown an interest, and intend allowing the boys to use the Armory Hall to practice and play in. It is the intention of the local team to play mid-week games between teams picked from men trying out for the first team. These games are not only for practice, but to give the people an opportunity to learn basket ball.

Early in the fall Prof. Goggin organized a Literary Society, to meet every two weeks. Various books were mentioned to be read during the winter months and discussed at their meetings. The scheme worked so well that after several months trial, besides the literary members on this musical selections have also been added. The following is the program of Dec. 4th.

Program of Literary Club.
Dec. 4, 1911.
1—Instrumental music .....
2—Vocal Solo ..... Mr. Dorsey
3—Book Review ..... Miss McGowan
4—Piano solo ..... Miss Pasco

For weeks the Soccer ball players of the camp practiced hard and faithfully to get into condition by Dec. 3rd, upon which date the Clifton players had agreed to come up and open the season in Morenci. It was a known fact that since Capt. Somerville's trip back to Scotland last spring and his return with a couple of other native sod men, that Morenci would have one of the strongest teams in this country, as over half of the players are men who have played on fast teams in Scotland. It was also thought, but not generally conceded, owing to the fact that several times last year upon trivial matters, the Clifton team became rather peevish and threatened to cancel the games. Seeing they heeded our boys last season, that this season Clifton would again be represented by a good live team, and that foot ball would furnish a mighty acceptable amusement for the winter months. Why the Cliftonites allowed the local team to believe up to the last day possible for them to cancel and give the public notice of their change of mind, that they would be here, can only be construed one way. They got "cold feet." "Get next to a good warm stove and get them thawed out, then try again, if you have any sporting blood in you," says Capt. Sommerville.
